A Brief History of LynnCo

1970s-90s

As owner of Fritz Companies through the 1970s, '80s, and '90s, LynnCo founder Lynn Fritz had spent his career streamlining supply chain logistics.

2010-2021

LynnCo continued to help clients improve supply chain management. In 2021, Lynn Fritz was inducted into the Logistics Hall of Fame (alongside Jeff Bezos) as one of the foremost advocates of logistics for humanitarian organizations.

2000s

LynnCo was founded in 2000. Fritz was the first to use technology solutions to support a nationwide network of offices that provided complete supply chain and logistics services, bringing method and consolidation to a fragmented industry.

Present

LynnCo is a global leader in supply chain analytics and operational solutions. We have built a leading supply chain platform of solutions and technology for high-growth companies.

By examining your entire logistics network and supply chain, LynnCo can offer a comprehensive solution that is 100% tailored to your company's needs.
